Teaching School Hub Partnership

Enhancing engagement & belonging through curriculum

Mary Myatt is an education adviser, writer and expert speaker working in partnership with The Learning Line. She curates Myatt & Co where she works with colleagues to develop thoughtful work on the curriculum and wider school improvement.

Mary Myatt

We are delighted to welcome Mary Myatt back to Cornwall to deliver this one-day engagement event in two parts. Mary Myatt (author of several leading books on curriculum design) will deliver both workshops.

Part 1

Enhancing engagement & belonging through curriculum
Looking at the importance of deliberate curriculum development & design and the links to improving engagement and belonging. How do we ensure that the curriculum both core and extended sings to every pupil makes them feel that there is something there for them.

Part 2

The importance of shared knowledge at KS2/3 transition
'Mind the Gap'

The importance of shared knowledge at key transition points in education

There is not a gap this is the continuation of learning and progression. How do we ensure that the transition process supports pupils in moving forwards, continuing their development, and accessing next steps.
