

Belonging Conference

‘New beginnings’: A focus on transitions, practice and language that enhances belonging in your school communities.

22 Apr 2024 09:00 - 16:00

Victoria Office and Conference Centre (Victoria Office and Conference Centre - Reception)

The conference will focus on ways schools can enhance belonging through a focus on key transitions, whole school practices and the power of language in creating belonging for all. The conference will share good practice from schools in Cornwall and offer a range of workshops to highlight best practice from relational policies to belonging through sport and physical activity.

New beginnings is suitable for both primary and secondary leaders / staff and the wider children’s workforce.

With a powerful keynote speech from Floyd Steadman, Former Saracens rugby captain and headteacher, threaded through with so many reasons as to why belonging matters. This will be a thought provoking and inspirational day.
