

THE EXCELLENT TEACHER PROGRAMME (ETP)

Are you a good teacher? Do you want to improve your practice, skills and strategies and become an excellent teacher?

The ETP has been created by a team of experienced school leaders and teachers with the objective of ensuring that teachers deliver consistently excellent lessons and secure the best possible outcomes for students.

“The mediocre teacher tells. The good teacher explains. The superior teacher demonstrates. The great teacher inspires.” — William Arthur Ward

The Excellent Teacher Programme will:

- assist in developing effective teachers within school teams
- encourage more reflective practice with opportunity for research
- raise the level of engagement and achievement in learning
- offer strategies to help school improvement
- deepen the understanding of excellent teaching and learning

This programme is open to all teachers who are consistently good but want to become consistently excellent and to be part of a future learning network. The course will commence in October 2018. For more information please contact Emma Williams at emmawil@truro-penwith.ac.uk

Cost:
£150 (plus VAT)
per delegate

THE EXCELLENT TEACHER PROGRAMME (ETP)

DATES AND VENUES

1st October 2018	Excellence in Teaching, Values and Self Awareness Introduction to research task Led by James Butterworth and Charlotte Sweet At Truro College - 4pm—6pm
6th November 2018	Creating a Learning Culture Led by Rachel Giddings and Jayne Banner At Parc Eglos School - 9:15am—3pm
16th January 2019	Effective Questioning Led by David Bradbeer and Rachael Nash At St Dennis Academy - 9:15am—3pm
5th February 2019	The Who, Why and What of Feedback? Led by Lorna Burton and Fiona Shuttleworth At Blackwater School - 9:15am—3pm
5th March 2019	Using Assessment to Promote Rapid Progress Led by Louise Williams and Jayne Banner At Parc Eglos School - 9:15am—3pm
Date to be confirmed	School visits
19th June 2019	Presentation of Research At Truro College - 4pm—6pm

