THE JOHN HARRIS SOCIETY

Reason for the competition

The John Harris Society wishes to celebrate the life of the Cornish miner and poet John Harris, who was born in 1820.

A special weekend is planned at the Penventon Hotel in Redruth, 16-18th October, 2020.

The organisers expect it will be attended by people from around the world, many of whom are direct descendants of John Harris.

To aid a greater knowledge and appreciation of this Cornish poet, the Society, with our kind benefactor Trevarno Marquee & Event Hire, is establishing two competitions.

The first concerns Junior schools, the second Senior. There is prize money of £1,000 in each instance for the winners, and runners-up prizes of £150 and £100.

The winning schools will be asked to exhibit their work at the Festival in the Penventon Hotel, Redruth on the afternoon of Saturday 17th October, when the awards will be presented by a special guest.

For those interested in entering the competition, please contact Tony Jasper for further details and a pack.
